

You Are a Miracle

Dan Evans for Brenda Tregoe

A miracle – when we look at you that's what we see.
You're a miracle – He'll make of you what He calls you to be.

A little further, a little longer, oh it seems so slow.
We're asked to trust in a plan that we can't begin to know.

Some believe a master plan prescribes for us each day.
Others feel our own free will permits us our own fate.

The potter turns the wheel to shape us for His special tasks.
It's just a humble honor of some of us He asks.

He said of those who give up much, much He will expect.
We are called not to look back, but on Christ our eyes direct.

Our prayers for you remind us, yet the proof is more vivid still.
You're the object of God's special mercy, His purpose to fulfill.

We base on faith so much of what God asks us to believe,
And often disregard the evidence He permits us all to see.

Brenda, you're a living tribute of what He can perform.
You suffered so that we could see the Creator's art once more.
